an eminent theologian draws on insights from major eastern and western world religions natural science philosophy and psychology in offering a broad treatment of man's beliefs about death and immortality the seven works in this volume some translated for the first time explore the great human mystery of death and the promise of eternal life they present along with on the soul and the resurrection pps 12 a vision that is consistent philosophically profound and characteristic of gregory s wider theology the first three works on the dead on infants taken away before their time and on the final subjection of christ might be termed thematic essays the fourth is a sermon celebrating christ s resurrection on the holy pascha and the remaining three are funeral homilies given for prominent people in constantinople meletius pulcheria and flaccilla this volume includes the critical greek text this book offers a multifaceted exploration of death and the possibilities for an afterlife by incorporating a variety of approaches to these subjects it provides a unique framework for extending and reshaping enduring philosophical debates around human existence up to and after death featuring original essays from a diverse group of international scholars the book is arranged in four main sections firstly it addresses how death is or should be experienced engaging with topics such as near death experiences continuing bonds with the deceased and attitudes toward dying secondly it looks at surviving death addressing the metaphysics of human persons the nature of time the nature of the true self and the nature of the divine it then evaluates the value of mortality and immortality drawing upon the resources of the history of philosophy meta analysis of contemporary debates and the analogy between individual death and species extinction finally it explores what an eternal life might be like examining the place of selflessness embodiment and racial identity in such a life this volume allows for a variety of philosophical and theological perspectives to be brought to bear on the end of life and what might be beyond as such it will be a fascinating resource for scholars in the philosophy of religion theology and death studies traces the development of the idea of eternal life as it changed to one of personal survival through modern influences such as marx freud the search for the historical jesus and vatican ii to today s thinking that we begin the afterlife now by currently working to build up the kingdom of heaven here on earth the book takes a historical approach first then considers biblical studies and apocalyptic questions then takes on popular questions such as is there sex in heaven this book was written to address the matter of spiritual salvation the existence of an afterlife according to the scriptures the author also expresses his personal conviction of his belief in the eternal life how through faith he has arrived at a conclusion that jesus christ was an eternal being that he was killed and then resurrected this resurrection that was witnessed by a few hundred was key to the transformation of the disciples changing from scared onlookers to emboldened performers of miracles it is further postulated by the author that our human consciousness or awareness is a spiritual and eternal quality of man the soul this quality never cease to exist even after physical death as the lord jesus comes back as he promised we are all going to get resurrected physically with the soul spirit that never died and we will have glorified physical bodies that will never die just like the resurrected body of christ which was flesh and bones but the kind that went through walls disappeared and re appeared at will which was witnessed by his followers heaven and hell looks at the main teachings of the bible to show what god has revealed about physical death eternal judgment and the only two possible destinations after death heaven and hell the author explains that because of sin everyone must die and face god s eternal judgment this means eternal life for believers and eternal punishment for unbelievers the author also assures christians that they do not need to fear death or the lord s judgment because of jesus death and glorious resurrection as believers we re assured of an eternal home in heaven in this series of beautiful and accessible meditations fr jean miguel garrigues examines death and eternal life in the light of christian revelation his work is the fruit of years of sustained theological reflection as well as his own experience accompanying terminally ill cancer patients as a hospital chaplain at the hour of our death nourishes the vitally important theological virtue of hope it encourages us to accompany the dying with compassion love and prayer to live in communion with the saints of heaven and the holy souls of purgatory and to wisely and serenely prepare ourselves for the day when we too will be called to accomplish in the company of jesus the great passover from this life to the house of our heavenly father the worldwide pandemic has brought end of life issues closer to many people than ever before fr jean miguel s insights lucidly rendered into english by fr gregory casprini will serve as a help and consolation to many strengthening their faith and encouraging them to pray for and accompany others is there life after death this most universal of questions has puzzled and challenged every generation of men and women if there is eternal life how do we start to comprehend this reality in the midst of a culture that has be dominated by rationalism and materialistic mind set and in which our present life is continually improving progressing to higher standards and better quality hans kung discusses the medical philosophical and theological problems that arise from these age old questions and provides a thought provoking analysis of the modern dilemma of the rethinking of ancient problems the existence by theodore ihejieta the existence is a book of love and life that talks about the world as the existence of human beings and tells human beings to understand that the world is the love and the life it is a book of planet earth which the planet earth gave to the author because the author asked the planet earth for the book of the world the author is a human being who lost faith in god and called on planet earth to do work and save human beings from evil and death in the world this is a book of a human being who was challenged by evil and death in the world and the human being called on his existence for help and protection the author did not like to die in the world and told his existence that he did not want to die because the author believed that planet earth has the power to save human beings in the world the existence is the faith the hope and the charity that god challenged human beings to find and tell the mountain of evil and death to move away from human beings every person is eternal you will exist for eternity either in heaven or hell those written in the lamb s book of life who know jesus as lord and savior will spend eternity in heaven those who are not the book of life will spend eternity in hell heaven is god s home full of the glorious splendor of his majesty and infinitely more hell is the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels the saved have eternal life and will live forever the unsaved are not spiritually alive when they die they go to eternal death jesus christ is god those who know jesus know god they have the zoe life of god they have the almighty god living in through and all around them outside of jesus there is nothing apart from jesus a person can do nothing without jesus someone has nothing receive jesus christ as lord and savior receive eternal life and live forever in heaven

this book presents a choice for the reader to consider and act upon based on the author s understanding of what the bible teaches learn where life comes from and how to escape eternal death which awaits us at the end of life on earth find out what role jesus christ plays in assuring us of eternity beyond our sojourn on earth there is a choice to make a decision between death and life
